1. FOUNDATIONS

As God who called you is holy,
be holy yourselves in all your conduct.

I Peter 1:15

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness.

James 3:1

Tend the flock of God, that is your charge, not under compulsion, but willingly, not for sordid gain, but eagerly,
do not lord it over those in our charge, but be examples to the flock.

I Peter 5:2-3 (NRSV)

Those who are called to office in the church are to lead a life in obedience to Scripture and in conformity to the historic confessional standards of the church. Among these standards is the requirement to live either in fidelity within the covenant of marriage between a man and a woman (W-4.9001), or chastity in singleness. Persons refusing to repent of any self-acknowledged practice which the confessions call sin shall not be ordained and/or installed as deacons, elders, or ministers of the Word and Sacrament.

Book of Order G-6.0106b (as amended in 1997)

(COM currently works with the Book of Order 2005-2007)

2. POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of the Presbytery of Nevada that all church members, church officers, non-member employees, and volunteers of the Presbyterian Church, and related agencies, shall maintain the integrity of ministerial, employment, and professional relationships at all times. Sexual misconduct is a violation of the principles set forth in Scripture and is never permissible.

3. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

The Presbytery of Nevada adopts this policy on sexual misconduct prevention for the use of all ministers, local churches and other related agencies under its jurisdiction. Its purpose is as follows:

1. To set standards of ethical behavior consistent with Scripture and secular law, and to establish a process for the enforcement of those standards.
2. To provide procedures for inquiry and effective response to allegations of sexual misconduct and/or harassment.
3. To serve as a guide for the application of the powers of presbytery and session under the Form of Government and the Rules of Discipline of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). See D-1.0000.
4. To establish personnel employment practices and forms for the administration of appropriate employer/employee relationships within the presbytery and related agencies.
5. To serve as a guide for the prevention of sexual misconduct.
6. To demonstrate pastoral concern to all parties affected by any alleged incidence of sexual misconduct.

4. DEFINITIONS

- a. Accountability Partner refers to a person thoroughly familiar with the ethical responsibilities of religious leaders and problems of transference likely encountered by such leaders, whose role is to help the clergy/professional layperson to be alert to possible problems in maintaining appropriate boundaries in relationships with parishioners/clients.
- b. Accused refers to the person against whom a claim of sexual misconduct is made.
- c. Accuser refers to the person whose claim of knowledge of sexual misconduct initiates an inquiry into alleged sexual misconduct.

- d. Advocate refers to the person(s) who provide ongoing support and accompaniment to the victim throughout the inquiry process and any subsequent proceedings. This may be a clergy or lay person, with special training for this task, who will have their out-of-pocket expenses covered by the presbytery.
- e. Child Sexual Abuse includes, but is not limited to:
 - i. Any sexual contact or sexual interaction between a child (under the age of eighteen years) and an adult;
 - ii. Any use of a child for the sexual stimulation of an adult, a third person, or the child;
 - iii. Any risqué jokes, innuendo, unacceptable visual contact, unwelcome casual touch, unwelcome and inappropriate hugs and kisses, and sexually suggestive pictures between an adult and a child, as deemed inappropriate by any reasonable adult.
- f. Church, when capitalized, refers to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). When non-capitalized, “church” refers to local churches.
- g. COM, when abbreviated, refers to the Committee on Ministry of the Presbytery of Nevada (G-3.0307).
- h. Disciplinary Process is the process undertaken pursuant to section D-10.0100ff in the Book of Order.
- i. Employee (member or non-member) is any person hired or called to work for the presbytery or any church or related organization within the jurisdiction of the presbytery for salary or wages.
- j. Investigation/Inquiry are the terms used in the Rules of Discipline to determine whether charges should be filed based upon the allegation of an offense received by the presbytery. (See Book of Order D-2.000). It is the examination of information regarding alleged sexual misconduct.
- k. Investigating Committee as defined in D-10.0200, is the body charged with performing the investigation/inquiry on behalf of the presbytery.
- l. Liaison refers to the person who relates to the accused throughout the inquiry process and any subsequent proceedings, whose out-of-pocket expenses will be covered by the presbytery.
- m. Mutual Consent is NOT POSSIBLE when one party is a clergy/professional lay leader in a pastoral, counseling, employer or leadership position within the church, related organization, or sponsored activity in which the other party is a parishioner, member, counselee, employee or participant; OR when one of the parties is a child.

- n. Persons Covered by this policy include all members of the presbytery, its employees and volunteers.
- o. Professional Lay Leader is any person hired to work for the presbytery or any church or related organization within the jurisdiction of the presbytery for salary or wages in a position which could be filled by either clergy or layperson.
- p. Reasonable Suspicion is a belief or opinion based on information or circumstances sufficient for a prudent person to take appropriate action.
- q. Religious Leader is a term used to include clergy persons, and professional as well as volunteer lay leaders.
- r. Secular Authorities are the government officials who have the responsibility to investigate, prosecute, and/or bring charges against individuals accused of sexual crimes or offenses against adults and children.
- s. Sexual Abuse is sexual misconduct in the context of a clear breach of professional trust and/or misuse of the power, stature, influence, or authority of the clerical office or other leadership position. In a professional context, mutual expressions of affection do not abrogate the abusiveness of the relationship, for true consensuality may be considered, by definition, impossible between a professional and a person in that professional's care.
- t. Sexual Harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:
 - i. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment, or their continued status in the presbytery, or
 - ii. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individuals, or
 - iii. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment based on the declared judgment of the affected individual. Lack of intent to harass is no defense.

Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to:

- 1. Verbal: sexual innuendoes, risqué jokes, sexually suggestive or insulting questions, comments or sounds, jokes or teasing of a sexual nature, sexual propositions or threats, continuing to make sexual advances or comments or otherwise expressing personal interest after being informed the interest is unwelcome, sexual remarks regarding clothing, body, or love life, or any type of subtle pressure for sexual activity.

2. Visual: sexually suggestive or gender derogatory objects, pictures, computer software, posters, or letters; leering, whistling, or obscene or sexually suggestive gestures.
 3. Physical: unwanted physical contact, including touching, pinching, brushing the body, impeding or blocking movement, sexual intercourse or assault.
 4. Encouraging attitudes or patterns of verbal, visual, or physical conduct (may or may not be obviously directed at a particular person) which may reasonably be perceived as tending to legitimate, rationalize, or make light of unwanted sexual advances.
- u. Sexual Misconduct is a comprehensive term used in this policy to include, but is not limited to:
- i. Child Sexual Abuse as previously defined;
 - ii. Rape or sexual contact by force, threat, or intimidation;
 - iii. Sexual Malfeasance - as breach of trust by a religious leader, resulting from a relationship and/or sexual contact within a ministerial or professional or leadership relationship;
 - iv. Production or distribution of pornography as defined by actions or policy statements of the General Assembly, Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.);
 - v. Sexual Harassment.

The definition of sexual misconduct is not meant to include non-abusive relationships between spouses.

- v. Synod Task Force is the Task Force for the Prevention of Sexual Misconduct in the Church, a part of the Mission Partnership Committee of the Synod of the Pacific.
- w. Victim is the term used to identify the person(s) who have been injured by sexual misconduct.
- x. Volunteer refers to a person who provides services to the Presbytery, or a church, or related organization without financial or material remuneration.

5. PRINCIPLES OF ETHICAL CONDUCT

1. An act of sexual misconduct is a violation of the ordination vows of clergy, and of lay persons who are appointed by the presbytery for the work of ministry. In such ministry, leaders are called upon to exercise integrity, sensitivity, and caring in a trust relationship devoted to the best interests of those to whom they minister.

2. Sexual misconduct is a misuse of authority and power which breaches Christian ethical principles. It is further a misuse of a trust relationship to gain advantage of another for personal pleasure or power, in an abusive, exploitative, and unjust manner. Such conduct cannot be justified by a claim of mutual consent. Even if the one being ministered to initiates or invites a sexual relationship, it is the clergy person's, or lay leader's responsibility to maintain the appropriate role and prohibit a sexual relationship.
3. Sexual misconduct takes advantage of the vulnerability of children and persons who are less powerful to act for their own welfare. It is antithetical to the gospel call to work as God's servant in the struggle to bring wholeness to a broken world. It violates the mandate to protect the vulnerable from harm.
4. Other areas of ethical conduct are treated in detail in the Ethical Guidelines of this presbytery, approved by this presbytery on September 20, 2000.

6. PREVENTION EDUCATION AND TRAINING

The presbytery will provide ongoing educational programs and provide training in pastoral care and disciplinary procedures aimed at preventing sexual misconduct. These training events will be presented in conjunction with the Synod Task Force.

The goals of this education and training will include:

1. Recognition of the imbalance of power between religious leaders and those in their care.
2. That religious leaders understand the necessity of maintaining appropriate boundaries as well as establishment and maintenance of professional and caring environment and demeanor; thereby ensuring the confidentiality of the parishioner/client and the protection of both parishioner/client and leader.
3. That religious leaders be aware that frequent pastoral calling visits, frequent phone conversations, extended time together, and physical touching, hugs, and kisses may be associated with sexual advances and are HIGH RISK BEHAVIORS which may be perceived as unwelcome or an infringement on the rights of others.
4. The need for ALL clergy to have an accountability partner with whom they meet regularly, since their role invites trust and dependence and because they are often in a one-on-one setting with persons who respect and depend on them.
5. The need for religious leaders who counsel or provide spiritual direction to observe professional precautionary measures such as: limiting time spent with each counselee or directee, making sure that there are other people around the buildings during sessions, and observing a professional caution regarding touching of counselee/directee.

6. The need for religious leaders who are providing counseling to be in a supervisory relationship with a licensed psychotherapist.
7. The need for religious leaders who are providing spiritual direction to be in direction themselves as well as having a supervising spiritual director.

7. RESPONSE PROCEDURES

a. Initial Report Procedures

Allegations of sexual misconduct are made in a variety of ways. It is important that officers, employees, and persons highly visible to church members and visitors understand how allegations of incidents are to be processed.

An accuser may report alleged sexual misconduct to any of the following:

- i. The pastor of the accuser's church or the accused's church;
- ii. A member of the Personnel Committee of the church or governing body;
- iii. The Committee on Ministry;
- iv. The Stated Clerk of Presbytery.

The first person to learn of alleged sexual misconduct must take the allegations seriously and confidentially. This person shall complete the Report of Suspected Sexual Misconduct (Exhibit A, this document). The report shall immediately be delivered to and called to the attention of the clerk of session or the Stated Clerk of the presbytery.

NOTE: It has been determined through case law that there is no confessional protection in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

Any incident of suspected sexual abuse of a minor, by a person covered by this policy, shall IMMEDIATELY be reported to Child Protective Services, local law enforcement, and/or the district attorney.

b. Presbytery Judicial Response

- i. Immediately upon receipt of the Report of Suspected Sexual Misconduct, the Clerk shall inform the Executive Presbyter and COM Chair, and these three shall appoint an Investigating Committee (I.C.) as stipulated in the Rules of Discipline (D-10.0300).

- ii. The I.C. must promptly begin its inquiry into the allegations, having received orientation by the Stated Clerk and a member of the Synod Task Force, as delay may cause further harm to all parties involved. The I.C. will conduct a thorough investigation as called for in D-10.0200.
- iii. Administrative leave for the accused shall be evaluated, and recommended when appropriate by the I.C. to the Stated Clerk, Executive Presbyter and Chair of COM, who together will determine and take the appropriate action. If administrative leave is deemed appropriate, the COM shall immediately begin work with the session and congregation.
- iv. Administrative leave is appropriate if there is some likelihood that a similar offense as alleged may occur during the period of investigation and/or trial; or if it appears necessary to preserve the peace and purity of the congregation, related organization, or sponsored activity. Administrative leave is preventative, not punitive.
- v. If the I.C. finds the allegations to be unsupportable, the report of that finding is forwarded to the Stated Clerk who shall then report that finding to the presbytery.
- vi. If at any time during the investigation the accused admits to the allegations, the investigation shall proceed to its conclusion, the charges shall be filed with the Permanent Judicial Committee (P.J.C.) along with the signed statement of the accused, and a settlement of consequences may be mediated.
- vii. If the accused does not concur with the allegations, charges are to be filed with the P.J.C. and the judicial process is to continue.
- viii. The degrees of censure are listed in D-11.0403e, and the terms of restoration in D-12.0201. The P.J.C. is encouraged to consult with the Synod Task Force for sentencing appropriate to the offense.

c. Presbytery Pastoral Response

Feelings of guilt, shame, anger, mistrust, lowered self-esteem, unworthiness, and feelings of alienation from God, self, the religious community, and family, are injuries frequently suffered by those impacted by sexual misconduct (these include among others: the victim(s), the accused, the accuser, the families and co-workers, the congregation, other employing entities, and the presbytery). It is important for the presbytery to be sensitive to the pain of all those involved, and their need for healing, and to act by making appropriate pastoral care available.

- i. Victim and Family
The presbytery will offer to provide pastoral care to the victims of sexual misconduct and their families through an advocate. If the victim or family at first refuses care, the presbytery should continue to offer this assistance throughout the process. Above all, the presbytery will NOT act in a self-protective manner by ignoring the victims and their families.
- ii. Congregation (or employing entity)
The COM, recognizing that allegations may polarize the congregation, damage morale, and create serious internal conflicts, may need to meet with the session to inform them of the allegations toward a religious leader related to that congregation. After a briefing on the judicial process, the COM may assist the session in planning their care for the congregation through this time.
- iii. Accused and Family
The presbytery will offer to provide pastoral care for the accused as well as his/her family through a liaison. If the accused is a minister, this is the responsibility of the COM (G-11.0502 I.). Any representative of the presbytery is not to make any presumption of guilt or innocence, and must be aware that the accused is wounded by the experience.
- iv. When charges against the accused are not sustained, it is vital that the presbytery publicize this fact as widely and quickly as is appropriate.

8. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

Allegation of sexual misconduct should be made to the proper officers of the presbytery as promptly as possible. However, there is no time limit on the filing of charges in cases of sexual misconduct (D-10.0401b). Child sexual abuse may not be recognized until the victim of abuse reaches adulthood. A person victimized when an adult may not recognize the abuse or be willing to come forward with an allegation for many years.

9. EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

All governing bodies are to comply with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act to ensure fair employment practices.

a. Record Keeping

Accurate record keeping is an essential part of responsible hiring and supervisory practice. Every session and presbytery shall maintain a personnel file on every employee, including ministers. The file shall contain the application for employment, employment questionnaire (Exhibit B), reference responses (Exhibit C), and other documents related to this policy or required by law.

b. Pre-screening Applicants

Pre-employment screening for ALL employees, including clergy, is to include completion of certification found on page 2 of Exhibit B which states:

I certify that: (a) no civil, criminal, ecclesiastical complaint has ever been sustained or is pending against me for sexual misconduct; (b) I have never resigned or been terminated from a position for reasons related to sexual misconduct; or (c) I have never been required to receive professional treatment for reasons related to sexual misconduct on my part.

If the applicant is unable to certify to the above, applicant may instead provide a copy of the relevant complaint, resignation, transfer, termination, or course of treatment giving dates, names, addresses, and telephone numbers of employers and/or physicians, the outcome of the situation, and any explanatory comments the applicant wishes to make.

c. Reference Checks

i. The employing entity, through its session, governing board, personnel committee, or Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC), as appropriate, is responsible for contacting references for all prospective employees, including clergy, regularly scheduled volunteers, and volunteers in high risk positions such as workers with youth and children, lay counselors, boy or girl scout leaders, and camp counselors.

ii. The presbytery, through the Executive Presbyter, is also responsible for including questions regarding sexual harassment and other sexual misconduct when making clearance checks of applicants for ordained positions; and for reporting to COM and the appropriate PNC any information received as to those specific subjects, including a report that there is no reported difficulty.

- iii. Applicants shall be given opportunity to submit additional references or to give their evidence to correct or respond to harmful information obtained from a reference.
- iv. If false or misleading information regarding sexual harassment or other sexual misconduct has been given by the applicant or relevant information withheld, the applicant shall be eliminated from consideration.
- v. If a response to a reference check reveals information of sexual harassment or other sexual misconduct, COM must be notified immediately, and the applicant may not be called or hired without the specific written approval of COM.
- vi. In response to reference requests, the Executive Presbyter and/or other persons authorized by the presbytery (either directly or through COM) to give references, must give truthful information regarding allegations and administrative or disciplinary action related to sexual misconduct of the applicant. The response, however, must be limited to information contained within the written summary prepared by the PJC or governing body.

10. COMPLIANCE AND DISTRIBUTION

All continuing members of the presbytery, its employees, and volunteers in high risk positions, e.g. youth ministry, camp counselors, etc. shall be required to sign a statement (Exhibit D) acknowledging that they have received a copy of this document and that they agree to conduct themselves in accordance with the policy contained herein. It will also be distributed to the sessions of all churches in the presbytery and made available to their church members upon request. Furthermore, a summary statement of the policy and other significant portions of this document (Exhibit E) shall be posted in all church entities.

Information Regarding Policy and Procedures Sexual Misconduct Prevention

Presbytery of Nevada

In recognition of the public and spiritual trust given to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the Presbytery of Nevada has adopted a policy to set and enforce standards of ethical sexual behavior by clergy and lay leaders consistent with Scripture and secular law, and to provide procedures for inquiry and effective response to allegations of sexual misconduct. Copies of the entire policy and procedure document may be obtained from your pastor, clerk of council, or the presbytery office.

THIS POLICY IS BASED UPON SCRIPTURE

As God who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in all your conduct. I Peter 1:15

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. James 3:1

POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of the Presbytery of Nevada that all church members, church officers, non-member employees, and volunteers of the Presbyterian Church, and related agencies, shall maintain the integrity of ministerial, employment, and professional relationships at all times. Sexual misconduct is a violation of the principles set forth in Scripture and is never permissible.

CONSONANT WITH SCRIPTURE, THE UNDERLYING ETHICAL PRINCIPLES OF THIS POLICY ARE:

1. The act of sexual misconduct is a violation of the ordination vows of clergy, elders and deacons and a breach of trust for all who are placed in leadership positions in the church.
2. Sexual misconduct is a misuse of authority and power which breaches Christian ethical principles by misusing a trust relationship to gain advantage over another for personal pleasure or power in an abusive, exploitative and unjust manner. Even if the one being ministered to initiates or invites a sexual relationship, it is the clergy person's or lay leader's responsibility to maintain the appropriate role and prohibit a sexual relationship.
3. Sexual misconduct takes advantage of the vulnerability of children and persons who are less powerful to act for their own welfare. It is antithetical to the gospel call, to work as God's servant in the struggle to bring wholeness to a broken world. It violates the mandate to protect the vulnerable from harm.

THIS POLICY DEFINES SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AS:

1. Sexual abuse of children (under the age of 18 years).
2. Rape or sexual contact by force, threat, or intimidation.
3. Sexual malfeasance - a breach of trust by a clergy/lay leader resulting from sexual contact within a ministerial or professional relationship.
4. Production or distribution of pornography.
5. Sexual harassment.

PRESBYTERY WILL SEEK TO PREVENT AND TO RESPOND TO MISCONDUCT BY:

1. Providing educational programs and training in pastoral and disciplinary procedures aimed at preventing sexual misconduct.
2. Immediately investigating all allegations of sexual misconduct.
3. Providing advocates to victims and liaisons to those accused.
4. A working with congregations to heal pains and conflicts within the congregation resulting from such misconduct.
5. Taking disciplinary action against the accused if the investigation reveals that the misconduct did, in fact, occur.

YOU CAN HELP TO ENSURE THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THIS POLICY BY:

1. Monitoring your own conduct toward others.
2. Promptly informing any person or persons involved that they should stop engaging in conduct offensive or objectionable to you or to others.
3. Bringing the matter to the attention of your pastor, supervisor (if you are a church employee), member of personnel committee, elder, chairperson of presbytery Committee on Ministry, or the Stated Clerk.
